Christmas Message from the School Principal

As the day of the birth of our Savior draws near, we take some time to reflect on the meaning of the season. At a time when the world is changing at a fast pace, the virtues of a good education are more relevant than ever.

As the Principal of a Premier Learning Institution with a world-class campus and curriculum, I believe that we at Stonyhurst Southville International School Batangas Campus can deliver a quality of learning that will help students achieve their full potential. But we seek to do more than help students achieve good grades. Important though these are, we also aspire to enrich the hearts, broaden the minds, and open the eyes of our students to understanding and tolerance in a world in desperate need of such educated and well-formed men and women. It is only through the learning of ideas gained through education that any human condition may be improved.

The Christmas trees, lights, and lanterns are being lighted all over the country, as the season of goodwill gets under way. To some, they are a sign of crass commercialism, but to me they light the way to a celebration that transcends all attempts to diminish it. It is a time for the family, sharing, love, and the celebration of life.

While churches will be teeming with people, tables abundant with food, and houses filled with presents, we at SSIS wish to encourage everyone to give thanks for the many blessings that came our way during the course of 2018. From simple things like not having any car trouble to not experiencing any debilitating sickness of any kind or being a victim of any man-made or natural disaster, let us gladden our hearts for a year that had been both safe, fruitful, and meaningful. And for those who went through some discomfort, trust that God is still good. Be assured that He still loves us and He still wants only what is best for each of us.

As we enjoy the Christmas break, let us take some time to give thanks. Let us take some time to be a blessing to someone in need. Let us take some time to prepare ourselves to be ready for that time when Jesus will come, not as an infant in Bethlehem but as conquering King and as our Lord and Savior.

On behalf of all us at the SSIS Batangas Campus, I take this opportunity to wish each student, parent, guardian, faculty, and staff a Blessed Christmas and a fruitful and GRIT-filled year ahead in 2019.

May God continue to shower His blessings upon each of us as we seek to do His will in 2019.

Today, December 17, marks the official start of the Christmas celebration in SSIS. This will be a very busy but festive day for the students, teachers, admin staff, and parents as they take on their respective duties in the Christmas Program and Christmas Bazaar.

Surely, the late afternoon and the early evening will be a feast for the senses- see the graceful moves of the students, hear the music, smell and taste the food, touch the trinkets, and feel the Christmas spirit.

Prepare yourself for entertainment. The first to take the center stage are the ECED pupils. They are going to dance and sing some Christmas songs which will make us groove. Their presentation will be followed by the performances of the Grade School students who will not only dance but will also serenade us with different Christmas carols. Moreover, The Junior High School and Senior High School students will set the stage on fire with their presentations of different songs which will awaken the spirit of Christmas in everyone.

Prepare to spend some cash. The High School students will set up booths to sell the products that they conceptualized in their business plans for their Business Subjects. This will not only give opportunity for the students to practice their entrepreneurial skills learned in class but will also help them get a high grade in the said subject for this activity serves as their GRASPS. The SSIS community, parents and their friends are encouraged to do their Christmas shopping during the Bazaar to show support to our enterprising students.

CHRISTMAS PARTY SCHEDULE

December 18 is the day when the students and teachers alike will celebrate the day of gift-giving and love. It is set as the Christmas party of the entire SSIS community. CEO Forum highlights achieving great from humble beginnings

By: Gleanne Veana Vazquez

Junior and Senior High School students had the opportunity to participate in the CEO Forum with Ms. Althea S. Ambida as the guest speaker of this 2nd term, held at the SSIS Main Hall, December 10.

She personally said that she was never an “A” student, but instead, she was someone who did her best. That truly reflects it from her company, Linkserve Solutions’s 6 core values: excellence, integrity, leadership, teamwork, respect, and diversity.

It wasn’t easy to pursue Political Science in a prestigious school such as the University of Santo Tomas (UST), when both of your parents are dentists. And she proved that by doing her On-The-Job training (OJT) at Krafts Food Philippines as a part of its Human Resources. But sadly, working for a big company as an HR wasn’t her thing.

“When you think that you have failed, remember that there is no such thing as failure. When you learn from it, then they are valuable lessons to avoid failure again” said Ms. Ambida

She went on and tried for Convergys in Alabang as an in-bound call center agent. Later on, her aunt recommended a smaller call center agent in Ortigas which will make her earn more as an outbound call center agent. She was paid P495,000 per month until she owned it and it gained P4.9 million per month with only ten people. But at the end she quit because of people not keeping their promises. It was all good because she got a new job and everything was working out, until she had a high risk pregnancy. She had to sell and leave everything she owned and go back to Batangas for her 5th grader, Manijeh A. Nazari Sin.

Although regaining her success seemed like a blur, it wasn’t the end for her. She was choosing between Canada to live a comfortable life or the Philippines where she can help and improve talented and skilled locals. And that’s how she set up Linkserve Solutions last 2008. Yet once again, success was not a straight line. Last 2013, she had a huge family loss which motivated her to work even harder for her loved ones.

But that didn’t stop her from working to where she is right now. Now that she has a balanced life, with God in the center and other factors such as family and work surrounding it, she accomplishes non-work awards too! She trained and participated in the Spartan Race 2018. She had the opportunity to attend Rise Hong Kong, where people from the biggest companies come and tell their stories. She couldn’t have done all these without her mentors who help her improve and develop into a better person.

Thank you very much to all those who showed their overflowing generosity during the Stonyhurst Southville For Others (SSFO) last December 14. Truly, all your donations meant a lot to us and have brought happiness to all the beneficiaries. Your usual support inspires us to do our best in everything that we do.

Our gratitude also goes to all the members of the SSIS Student Council for spearheading this activity and for organizing everything that is needed for this outreach program.

Indeed, the true spirit of Christmas can be felt whenever we choose to be blessings to others.

P.S. We salute you!

Please be advised that the LONG TESTS will be on January 10, 11, 14, and 15, 2019. Everyone is encouraged to allot days during the Christmas vacation to prepare for the said assessments. Kindly refer to the schedule released by your child’s homeroom adviser to know the specific schedule of the tests.

THANK YOU for supporting the Movie Block Screening of the SSIS Student Council!

Congratulations to our new LICENSED PROFESSIONAL TEACHERS who passed the Licensure Examination for Teachers last September!

PARENTING CORNER

Set goals for the new year

Goal setting is an important part of helping children reach their full potential. If students don't learn the value of setting and achieving goals early on, they will not be prepared to work hard on personal resolutions in the years to come. Creating both short- and long-term goals will help motivate your children through experiencing the rewards of commitment.

As we enter a new year, it is but a must to help your children to set new goals which will require them to strive hard. The start of the year 2019 is a perfect opportunity for them to begin anew.

The following are the ways that the parents should consider in helping their children set goals for the year 2019:

1. Use SMART Goals. This is an acronym that stands for Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, and Time-Bound. These will surely help your children to set goals which are attainable.
2. Identify Short and Long Term Goals. You need to have a short term goal that will build momentum. So, even break it down further to turn in all homework each day. Just meeting that daily short term goal will get you one step closer to your ultimate goal.
3. Make the goal specific. The target needs to be very clear for your child. Help him/her clearly articulate what it is they want to achieve.
4. Set a short timeframe. Many goals fail because the time frame is too long. Set small, specific timeframes (2-3 weeks) that can be more easily monitored.
5. Make a plan. Help your child figure out actions they can take to reach their goal. How will you better understand what you are reading? Will you write a summary after a certain number of pages? Will you ask questions as you read?
6. Review and Track Your Progress. Each week, you can discuss with your child what they are doing to achieve their goal and what barriers are in their way.
7. Adjust the goal. There is nothing wrong with your child adjusting his/her goals. Adjusting will be more successful than quitting.
8. Celebrate. Celebrate the small successes like sticking to the goal's steps. There is something about acknowledging progress, even small progress, that propels us to keep at it and work toward the next small step along the road of attaining a goal.
